45 LOST WHEN FRENCH LINER SINKS.

PARIS, May 24.—It is officially announced that the French liner Sontay, bound for Marseilles from Saloniki with 344 passengers, was torpedoed on April 16 with a loss of 45 lives. The steamer sank rapidly in a heavy sea but the prompt and methodical manner in which the small boats were launched saved the majority of those on board. Captain Magee went down with the ship. The Sontay was a vessel of 7,217 tons and was built in 1908.

The Transylvania, an Anchor line steamer of 14,315 tons gross, has been in the service of the British government since May 1915 when her sailing was cancelled. ### AIRSHIPS BOMB ENGLISH COAST the Person Killed in Norfolk County; Material Damage Is Slight.

LONDON, May 24.—Four or five German airships raided the eastern counties of England last night, according to an official statement issued this morning. They dropped bombs and escaped although pursued. The official statement says:

"Four or five hostile airships approached East Anglia shortly before midnight last night. The weather was overcast and a stiff bank of rain clouds made observation difficult. Four airships appear to have penetrated inland into the eastern counties. They followed erratic courses and dropped a number of bombs in country districts apparently being unable to locate their position. The raiders were pursued by our air forces but thick clouds enabled them to escape. One man was killed in a Norfolk village. The material damage is believed to be negligible."

$10,000 DAMAGE CAUSED BY MORNING FIRE AT SCOTSDALE

Boston Candy Kitchen and Trout's Market Burned; Other Stores Damaged.

FIREMEN PREVENT SPREAD

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, May 24.—Fire early this morning badly damaged the Boston Candy Kitchen and Trout's meat market at Pittsburg street and Broadway. The loss in these two stores and in adjoining stores where stocks were hurt by the smoke will total about $10,000. George Satriakof, proprietor of the candy kitchen, and his wife who lived above the store, were taken out by the front windows, since their escape by the stairway was cut off by the flames.

Jacob Timmerman, while on his way to work at the plate mill at 1 o'clock, noticed flames in the candy kitchen, and immediately turned in an alarm. The firemen answered promptly, and through their efforts the fire was confined strictly to the candy store and the meat market, both in the same building. Mr. and Mrs. Satriakof, asleep, knew nothing of the blaze until the firemen arrived.

Mr. Satriakof estimates his damage at $2,500, and M. N. Trout, proprietor of the meat market, put his at the same figure. The building itself, owned by the Lavenogood and Miller heirs, was damaged to the extent of about $2,000. The stock in the Satriakof Brothers' candy store, which adjoins the candy kitchen, was ruined by smoke, the loss being estimated at $2,000. Ed O'Neill's living rooms above his restaurant, next to the Trout store, were damaged by smoke and water, about $200 worth.

Defective electric wiring is said to have caused the fire. The building was not completely burned down, only the interior of the two stores being gutted. The blaze had been extinguished by 3:30, less than half an hour after the alarm was turned in.

WENT WITH UNCLE

and Gets Excused to Accompany Relative But a Few Years Older.

A local school teacher was disappointed the other day by one of her pupils to be excused early. He said he had to "go somewhere with his uncle." In fact, he was very anxious that she should understand that his uncle was going along. That fact was emphasized to make it plain that he was not playing "hooky" or anything like that.

The boy was excused. Some time later the teacher happened to see the little shaver pass along the street with another boy. Then the humor of the incident dawned upon her. His companion was his uncle, all right, but he was only a few years older and went to the next grade above in the same building.

Mr. Yrooman is famous as an economist as well as an authority on scientific farming.

Charles F. Hood of Connellsville yesterday filed an answer to the rule granted several days ago at the instance of J. Lawrence Schick upon Mr. Hood requiring him to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for the Hunsar Chemical Company of Connellsville. Mr. Hood in his answer denies that he is insolvent. He admits that he withdrew funds of the Hunsar Chemical Company from the bank, but denies that it was without knowledge of Mr. Schick. He claims that the money was his property.

Mrs. Hood alleges that the average profits of the Hunsar company are $1,000 per year, and that there are no assets to be dissipated, as alleged by Mr. Schick. A receiver is not necessary, Mr. Hood claims.

CITY MAY ESTABLISH A PARKING PLACE FOR CARS

Erishbee Lot May Be Taken Over and Man Placed in Charge of It.

WOULD CLEAR UP STREETS

The city is likely to take over the parking place at Apple street and Meadow lane, once cleaned up and put in shape by the Business & Professional Men's association, but never popular. Mayor R. Marietta is highly in favor of the plan, and believes that if the lot were properly cleaned up, and certain things done to induce automobilists to use it, it would clear up the streets wonderfully, and would be advantageous to everyone.

Chief of Police B. Kotler has been instructed to make arrangements with the owners of the Erishbee lot for its use by automobilists. It is believed that there will be no objection on the part of the owners, who donated the lot once before for the same purpose.

Mayor Marietta's idea is to put a man in charge of the parking place, to show each driver as he comes in, where to put his car. This man would see that the vehicles were so placed that anyone could get out of the grounds without any trouble. The man in charge would have to exist on tips from automobilists using the parking place, since the city does not propose to pay him a salary. The lot will probably be cleaned up by the chain gang very shortly if satisfactory arrangements can be made for the use of the lot by Mayor Marietta is determined to do away with the long line of automobiles usually parked along both sides of Apple street.

The parking place was put in shape by the Business Men's association some time ago, but car owners for some reason refused to use it. Only one or two automobilists ever made a practice of parking there, and the association, of course, dropped its plans for keeping the place in order. The weeds have now grown up, the fence fallen in, and broken glass has been scattered throughout the lot.

In addition to the rejuvenation of the "municipal parking place," there is also some talk of making the Erishbee lot on South Arch street into a similar place. Lights may be placed about the lot, and J. Mervis, owner of the lot, may take charge of the parking of automobiles there.

A consignment of 75 bushels has been received from West Virginia over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and will be given out at the depot at that road this afternoon.

CONTRACT FOR TRUCK

Fire Fighting Machine to Be Rebuilt by Galley Brothers.

The contract for the building of the South Connellsville fire truck has been let to Galley Brothers of Mount Pleasant. A five passenger Stevens-Duryea touring car recently purchased from the Rist Brothers garage at Dawson will be rebuilt and made into an up-to-date fire truck. Complete equipment for it has been purchased from the American La France company. The South Connellsville firemen expect that the truck will be out of the shop in about three months. The complete cost will be about $1,500. Galley Brothers' price will be about $400.

The firemen are holding a festival tonight, Friday and Saturday nights, to help defray the expenses of this building and purchase of equipment. The South Connellsville band will furnish the music, and there will be ice cream booths and similar attractions. The festival is to be held on the school grounds.

Other persons wishing to bring flowers are to leave them at the city hall, not later than 8:30. The pupils of the public schools will assemble on the lawn of the Carnegie Free Library, to sing "America" and wave flags as the procession passes.

FAYETTE MAY GET $285,987 FOR NEW STATE HIGHWAYS

Sum Will be Only $142,993 If Entire Appropriation is Pared Down.

MAINTENANCE SEPARATE

Special to The Courier.

HARRISBURG, May 24.—The appropriation to the State Highway Department for the next two years, according to the Woodward bill, now in committee in the House, will be $3,000,000 for state-aid work and $12,000,000 for state highways.

Fayette county's share of this appropriation, according to the basis established by the State Highway Department, will be $63,317.07 for state-aid work, and $153,669.04 for state highways. This makes a total of $216,986.11 available for road work in Fayette county, to be spent under the direction of the state highway commissioner, in addition to the sums the county commissioners are putting on county roads.

Maintenance by the state of any of its roads and work on the national pike will be paid for out of other appropriations.

If the appropriation is reduced $1,500,000 for state-aid roads and $6,000,000 for state highways, Fayette county will lose $142,993.59, which will seriously interfere with the county's plans as outlined by Commissioner Black and, doubtless, will bring about a protest from the Fayette county members of the legislature.

FRUIT JAR EXPLODES

Woman May Lose Sight as Result of Burst.

When a stone jar of pears which had been placed in an oven exploded and dashed the boiling hot fruit into her face, Miss Maggie Townsend of Nicholson township was so seriously injured that she may lose the sight of both eyes.

The accident occurred on Monday when Townsend was preparing a meal for the family and set the stone jar in the oven, forgetting about it in the course of her other preparations for dinner. When she did think of the pears, she hurriedly removed them from the stove and placed them on the sideboard. The red hot jar cracked and exploded and threw the boiling contents into Miss Townsend's face. The accident was probably caused by the boiling of the pears in a sealed jar to a point where it generated steam.

Dr. J. R. Goodman was called to treat the injured girl. She is burned badly about the face, and the danger of her losing her sight is great.

CLANSMITH WILL AGAIN BE THUNDERED UP IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, May 24.—With President Wilson's personal presence for passage of a newspaper censorship bill, the House conference today indicated that the question would again be taken to the floor of Congress for more discussion and another vote.

Agreement by the conferees on a modified censorship bill was said today by Senator Overman to be probable. The House conferees it was said, want another vote believing the House will accept a compromise provision. If the conferees are as indicated today, expect a new censorship bill to be passed by the House with first-class and vote again. It is reported there is a defeat as a part of the compromise measure will be final vote necessary for the Senate to act.

When the conferees return tomorrow, Senator Overman will offer a substitute for the present amendment now in the House bill. The new proposal would authorize the President to prevent the rules to prevent the disclosure of information regarding military operations but would not prevent criticism of public officials or policies.

RECRUITING MUST PROCEED QUICKLY. ADJUTANT DECLARES

Letter to Captains Advises Putting Forth Every Effort to Enlist Good Men.

Urging that recruiting be undertaken "thoroughly and at once," to take commands to full war strength, Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart has addressed a letter to all national guard commanders setting forth ways and means of arousing patriotic interest and obtaining the kind of men most acceptable for the guard.

"Additional men should be selected with great care," the adjutant general's order states, "and with special attention to the following:

No one should be enlisted who may have dependent wife, mother or children.

No one to be taken who cannot pass satisfactorily the physical examination as set forth in Circular No. 5, April 6, 1915.

Moral character, good habits, sobriety and general fitness for service must be given careful consideration.

Effort to get young men between 18 and 20 years of age. Uncommissioned should receive practical consideration. Untidy, ungroomed men or men with a bad social habits are repellent and should not be made the associates of men who possess gentlemanly and soldierly qualities. Each man should have personal pride and have ambition to be an obedient and dependable soldier and thus reflect credit not only upon himself but as well upon the state and the organization of which he forms a part.

"Commanding officers should see that the records are kept complete and up to date, but uniforms are continually clean and in serviceable condition, and to that every member of an organization should do his part. The commanding officer cannot do it all and his effort should be to so interest every member in his duty that the work of the commanding officer will be supervisory.

"Each officer and non-commissioned officer should be assigned his particular work or duty and if he fails to do his duty he should be disciplined, for in no other way can an organization be made and kept efficient. The appointment of non-commissioned officers rests with the commanding officer and their efficiency or inefficiency reflects the judgment of the commanding officer.

The adjutant general recommends that outdoor drills be indulged in as often as possible and that the public be permitted to see the company in action.

"The nation calls upon every citizen, and especially the soldier, to do his part, even though it be at some personal sacrifice of time, means and pleasure," the order concludes.

ARCADE THEATRE.

For the last half of the present week the Arcade will present three acts of exceptional merit, for the approval of the theatre-goers of this city. Every act on the bill is of the highest caliber and is sure to make the last half the banner days of the present season.

Commencing Monday, May 28, with Zarro's "American Review," the Arcade will inaugurate a season of 10 weeks of the highest class light musical comedies now on tour. The policy of the management will be an entirely new company of artists every week, with a complete change of program every Monday and Thursday.

BOSSON THEATRE.

"THE SPOTLIGHTS"—A 12 reel production featuring William Farnum and Kathryn Williams, will be shown today and tomorrow. This thrilling romance of the gold fields of our great Northwest, it strong in sentiment, is steeped in force primitive fashions inspired by fabled evils that invest the closing coils of a great conspiracy for robbing honest toil of its golden fruits, and it has braved privation with death ever imminent day by day or through the long night of the midnight sun. It also has the better and brighter things in contrasting figures. Kite's orchestra will furnish the music.

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

Intensive Cultivation

An idle garden is like the proverbial pair of idle hands—Satan finds work for both of them—and the garden Satan makes a specialty of weeds, which scatter their seeds and so perpetuate themselves, says today's bulletin from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, co-operating with The Courier in urging garden cultivation.

The best way to avoid weeds is to plant so many vegetables that the weeds will have no space to grow in. We can pick up many useful ideas in making little Sunday excursions to the market gardens on the outskirts of the city and see some of the methods used by the gardeners there, who must make every inch of ground work all the time to pay a decent interest on the heavy cost of the land.

For instance, we may see dwarf peas planted early in the spring. As soon as these have received sufficient cultivation, sweet corn will be planted between the rows. The peas are harvested and the vines ready to be turned under to enrich the soil with their humus by the time the corn is ready for cultivation. When the corn is tilled enough turnips will be planted broadcast between the rows, and they will be ready just when frost comes in the fall.

In a small garden a degree of attention can be given to intensive cultivation that cannot be equalled in the market garden because of lack of labor. For that reason the home gardener should use his ingenuity and do better than the commercial gardener in the volume of food produced on a square foot of soil. With sufficient fertilization plants may grow so thickly together that the gardener has only room enough to get into the beds for cultivation.

FOR YOUNG FOLKS

Sleepy Time Story About a Fairy Queen of Long Ago.

LIVED IN A MAGIC CASTLE.

Method by Which She Tested the Character of Children—Modest and Polite Were Rewarded and the Greedy Punished.

As this is the season of flowers, said Uncle Ben to Little Ned and Polly Ann, I will tell you about the—

PRIMROSE QUEEN.

Across the ocean, in Europe, primroses grow wild, and there are many pretty stories told about them. The one which I shall tell you is a great favorite with the little folks of central Europe, for whom the primrose is known as the key flower.

The story goes that in a forest—no one seems to know just which forest—in a golden castle lives a wonderful fairy queen named Bertha.

No one has ever seen it, though many little ones have started out hand in hand searching through field and woodland. Over its arm each child may carry a basket, and this is to bring home the treasure which is for all who are true to the magic castle.

Up and down, over hills and valleys, they wander, and whenever they meet any one the little ones stand and wait to see if they are spoken to, for Queen Bertha is said to go wandering about, trying now this child and now that one, to find out who is good enough to be her guest. Now she asks this little favor, now she asks that one. It may be that she is hungry and asks to share the child's food, or she may carry a heavy basket and ask the children to help her.

And if she is really Queen Bertha by and by she will say very suddenly, "Do you like primroses?"

The little one must answer very politely, "Yes, ma'am; we like primroses very much."

Then the queen smiles and, casting off the disguise she may be wearing, stands dressed in all the lovely blue clothes which fairy queens ought to wear.

"Here is the key of my castle," she says, and hands them a key. "You will find it just over there. Go in and stay as long as you like. When you leave you must take a pot of primroses with you. When you get home dig up the primroses and you will find a gift at their roots."

When the little ones reach the castle they are feasted and waited on by the fairies.

If they are greedy and take more than one pot of the primroses the flowers are just heavier and heavier as they carry them home. Then when they dig up the plants, expecting to get more gifts than one, they find only lumps of lead there.

If they have been polite and taken only the single pot which the queen has told them they may have they find the pot crammed and running over with gold and precious gems, enough to make them and their parents wealthy for life.

cause they are young members of the cat family. These interesting young kittens were shipped at the New York zoo by an enterprising camera man.

Scouts Help the Birds.

Boy scouts of the Philadelphia organization erected several hundred bird sanctuaries. These have been placed throughout the city and on the grounds of suburban estates.

COMFORT BAGS.

What to Put in Them For the Soldier Boys on Duty.

Comfort bags for soldiers are being made by women engaged in war relief work. This is the time to make them in order that they may be ready when needed.

For a comfort bag it is well to use khaki cloth to correspond with the uniform. The most important thing is the equipment. Soldiers do not want a lot of useless articles to cumber them, but there are a number of things they do need.

For instance, if you wish to have your soldier write to you place a pocket in the bag filled with stamped envelopes, not torn scraps, as they stick together and are easily lost. Writing paper could be in the form of a pad or sheets could be slipped in each envelope so as to be ready for use when needed.

Of course soldiers need sewing kits, which can be purchased in a five and ten cent store for 10 cents each. The sewing kit may be a folder containing a thimble, needles, many black and white safety pins, buttons and other things of the kind, of course these folders can be made at home. Safety matches, toothbrushes, vaselined cotton, bandages to be used for small scratches, darning cotton, darning needles, stomach bands knitted of gray wool, postcards and lead pencils are good things for the comfort bag. Naturally individual needs and tastes will be consulted.

The bag may be 13 by 10 inches. The taste of the owner, his state and the number of his regiment may be outlined on the outside.

Sport Colors.

Pumpkin yellow, Chinese orange, to-raz and Roman gold are the choice shades of yellow.

Fuchsia red, Japanese scarlet and Indian crimson are the vivid shades of red that will be used for ornamentation.

In blue there are marine, navy, Egyptian and especially Chinese.

In green there are jade, Nile, bottle and turquoise.

Before Buttonholing.

Great difficulty is often experienced in trying to keep the edges that are to be buttonholed from fraying. The best thing to do is to run a line of machine stitching along the line to be buttonholed. This will not only prevent the goods from fraying before and during the work, but will insure a stronger and neater effect after it is buttonholed.

No one ever honestly follows what flight he has without finding that the flight increases as he goes forward.

Smithfield.

SMITHFIELD, May 24.—Mrs. Nora Gans Schnatterly who died at her home near Pittsburg, was interred in Oak Grove cemetery in Springfield township, Wednesday afternoon. Deceased was born near Morris Cross Roads, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gans. Her husband, Louis Schnatterly, and several brothers survive. Louis Schnatterly, her husband, was born and reared in Nicholson township, and is the only surviving member of his family. Senator J. Benton Schnatterly was a brother.

The 10 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sapp died with pneumonia at her parents' home at High House and was buried in the Baptist cemetery here Tuesday.

A severe western wind storm which visited this section Tuesday evening did considerable damage. It blew a Sackett suffered the worst. It blew a tall chimney off his residence on Liberty street, breaking and cracking the slate from comb to eve. It also blew two Tri-State telephone poles down on High House street, raining them across the street, blocking traffic on that street until they were cleared away by nearby neighbors. The wind was accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain which laid the dust that had become a nuisance, thus compensating in a measure the damage the wind had done.

LITTLE TALKS ON THRIFT

By S. W. STRAUS
President American Society for Thrift

The annual income of an Indianapolis postman for thirty years was a thousand dollars or less. He and his wife bought a house and educated a family of four boys and two girls. Three of the boys and one of the girls went through college. It may be that they carried part of the money themselves, but it was home training and ambition that gave them the ability to thus help themselves. Three boys became civil engineers and two of them were employed on the Panama canal while it was building. One of them is now examiner in civil engineering for the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington and the other is in Alaska with the United States Alaska Engineering Commission. The third boy is an official of one of the big railroads. One boy and the other girl did not go beyond the grammar and high schools. The boy has an important position with a large corporation and the girl stays at home. Yet the father of this family received only $1,000 a year. Think of the self-denial of the father and mother of these children!

Baby Sleeps.

The smaller a child is the more sleep it requires. The little new baby should have about twenty-two hours sleep out of the twenty-four during the first three months, twenty hours the second three months, sixteen hours from then until one year old. The one-year-old child requires twelve hours at night, with a two to four hour nap; two years, twelve hours, with a nap of two hours, increasing to four hours; three years, twelve hours, with a nap of four hours, lessening to two hours; four to six years, thirteen hours, with a nap lessening from three hours to one hour; seven to nine years, thirteen hours, lessening to twelve hours, night sleep; ten to twelve years, eleven hours; thirteen to fifteen years, ten hours at least; sixteen years and more, nine hours. This is a practicable sleeping table for the average child and may be safely followed unless the child's physician orders otherwise.

About Blouses.

The blouse for summer is to be thoroughly comfortable. That much the early fashion leaders have seen. There are some high neck garments, but these will not be nearly so popular as the ones which are cut round or V shape at the neck. Furthermore, the long sleeve is giving way to the elbow length one. In sport blouses as well as those for dressy wear the shorter length is preferred. The sleeves are fuller or wider at the elbow, and this is a factor in the wearer's comfort.

Scotch Hash.

An option on size and shape cooked a little in beef dripping, then add cooked meat that has been put through a meat chopper and a quarter as much the crumbs of dried bread. Add salt and pepper and some gravy. If small amount add a little hot water after cooking awhile. Cook slowly half an hour or more, turning carefully to brown it all. This is very rich and is better made of cooked roast beef which is generally the poorest meat for hash. No potatoes in this hash.

Consider the thrift that they constantly exercised. Yet they showed the highest kind of patriotism, gave six children to their country, equipped them with good morals, gave them each a start in life and did it on less than $20 a week. Thriftlessness has been nowhere more evident than in the deforestation of this country. Great wood forests were destroyed to make room for farms and enormous forests of pine and hemlock were cut down. But Pennsylvania is reforesting. Over 21,000,000 trees have been set out and five millions more can be used for the purpose. The state has adopted European methods and hereafter whenever a tree is chopped down another one must be planted in its place. When a state starts to build up and conserve its resources—individuals are encouraged to do likewise.

The United States government has officially recognized the value of thrift. In a statement recently issued by the Department of Agriculture, it urges that, as a patriotic duty, city residents transform their yards into gardens and farmers diversify their crops in order to make each section self-sustaining. The great need in war time, it is pointed out would be a surplus of wheat with which the nation can feed its allies. The acreage of soy beans and cow peas should be increased to augment the resources for protein, which in time of emergency, could take the place of meat for human food.

CENSUS OF GARDENS.

Almost completed. The garden committee of the public safety committee has practically completed the canvass of the town to find out just who could use ground for planting, and who would be willing to furnish lots free for cultivation. This information they gained is now being tabulated and put in shape for practical use.

Table of 19,500 Pieces.

A table made of 19,555 pieces of wood of 50 varieties is on exhibition in the Leonard Furniture company window. It is the handwork of J. R. Lenhart, a local carpenter, who spent over two years in its manufacture.

MAY SAVE COMPANY

Expect to Rehabilitate Pittsburgh Life

That the Pittsburgh Life and Trust company will be rehabilitated and kept intact and will be made a going concern was the opinion expressed last night by Insurance Commissioner
J. Denny O'Neil, who spent all of yesterday afternoon in conference with Deputy Attorney General Horace W.
Davis and S. E. Forrester, attorney of the state insurance department.

"While we wouldn't like to hold out too much hope until we are absolutely certain," said Mr. O'Neil, "we feel very much encouraged and from the present outlook we believe it will not be necessary to re-insure the policy holders with other companies or to liquidate the financial affairs of the wrecked company. Our first effort is to save the old company and we believe we can do it, although, of course, that depends somewhat on the action taken by those who are expected to restore the $1,500,000 taken from the company's assets.

NEWSPAPERS LOYAL

Keep Close Secret News of French
Mission's Sailing.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 23.—Vice Premier Viviani and Marshal Joffre and the French mission sailed from New York on May 15, unknown except to a few officials and many newspapers, which loyally kept the secret so the distinguished guests of the nation might not be unnecessarily endangered by submarines. The party slipped away on the same steamer conveyed by a French warship.

So well was the secret kept by the volunteer censorship under which American newspapers are co-operating with the government that the French commissioners generally were supposed to be still in Washington and up to yesterday invitations to them to visit several places were received.

The departure was attended by as much secrecy as the government could throw around it and the arrangements were such as to make it difficult for German spies to use any information, and they gained possession of it.

The one big, original May White Sale is a contradiction to age, for as it progresses and women become fully aware of the decided economies presented, it grows in favor and patronage. Compare the quantity and the quality of our merchandise with that offered in other White Sales. Compare our prices. Then make your decisions on a strict merit basis. There can be only one result.

Every department showing anything of White has "done its bit" toward making this the ONE IMPORTANT WHITE EVENT OF THE SEASON.
